

The Journey Towards Equity-Focused Health Practices: Tips for Finding Success

Dr. Renae Azziz
Founder and Director
Virtuoso Education Consulting

2022 Indiana School Health
Network Conference

Today's Learning Objectives

Participants will:

- Understand the importance of developing Equity-focused mindsets
- Assess the degree to which they possess the skillsets required to identify and disrupt inequitable systems
- Reflect on current implementation of Equity-focused tools (practices) in their organization

WHAT'S YOUR
WHY?

Simon Sinek's Golden Circle

Why = The Purpose

What is your cause? What do you believe?

How = The Process

Specific actions taken to realize the Why.

What = The Result

What do you do? The result of Why. Proof.

What is Equity?

Equity

- Equity in education is raising the achievement of all students while: narrowing the gaps between the highest and lowest performing students; and eliminating the predictability and disproportionality of which student groups occupy the highest and lowest achievement categories.

-Singleton (2015)

- Health Equity is improving outcomes related to the SDoH for all children and families while addressing and responding to the ways in which systemic factors impact subgroups differentially, thereby eliminating the predictability and disproportionality of the subgroups occupying the highest and lowest health outcomes.

Azziz (2022)

- Achieving Equity requires a comprehensive review and revision of policies, practices, and procedures in order to ensure that all subgroups benefit equally. Requires a focus on all aspects of Organizational Climate and Culture.

-Azziz (2017)

The Journey Towards Equity-Focused Health Practices

Beliefs and Actions that actively focus on dismantling the structures, policies, institutions, and systems that create barriers and perpetuate systemic inequality.

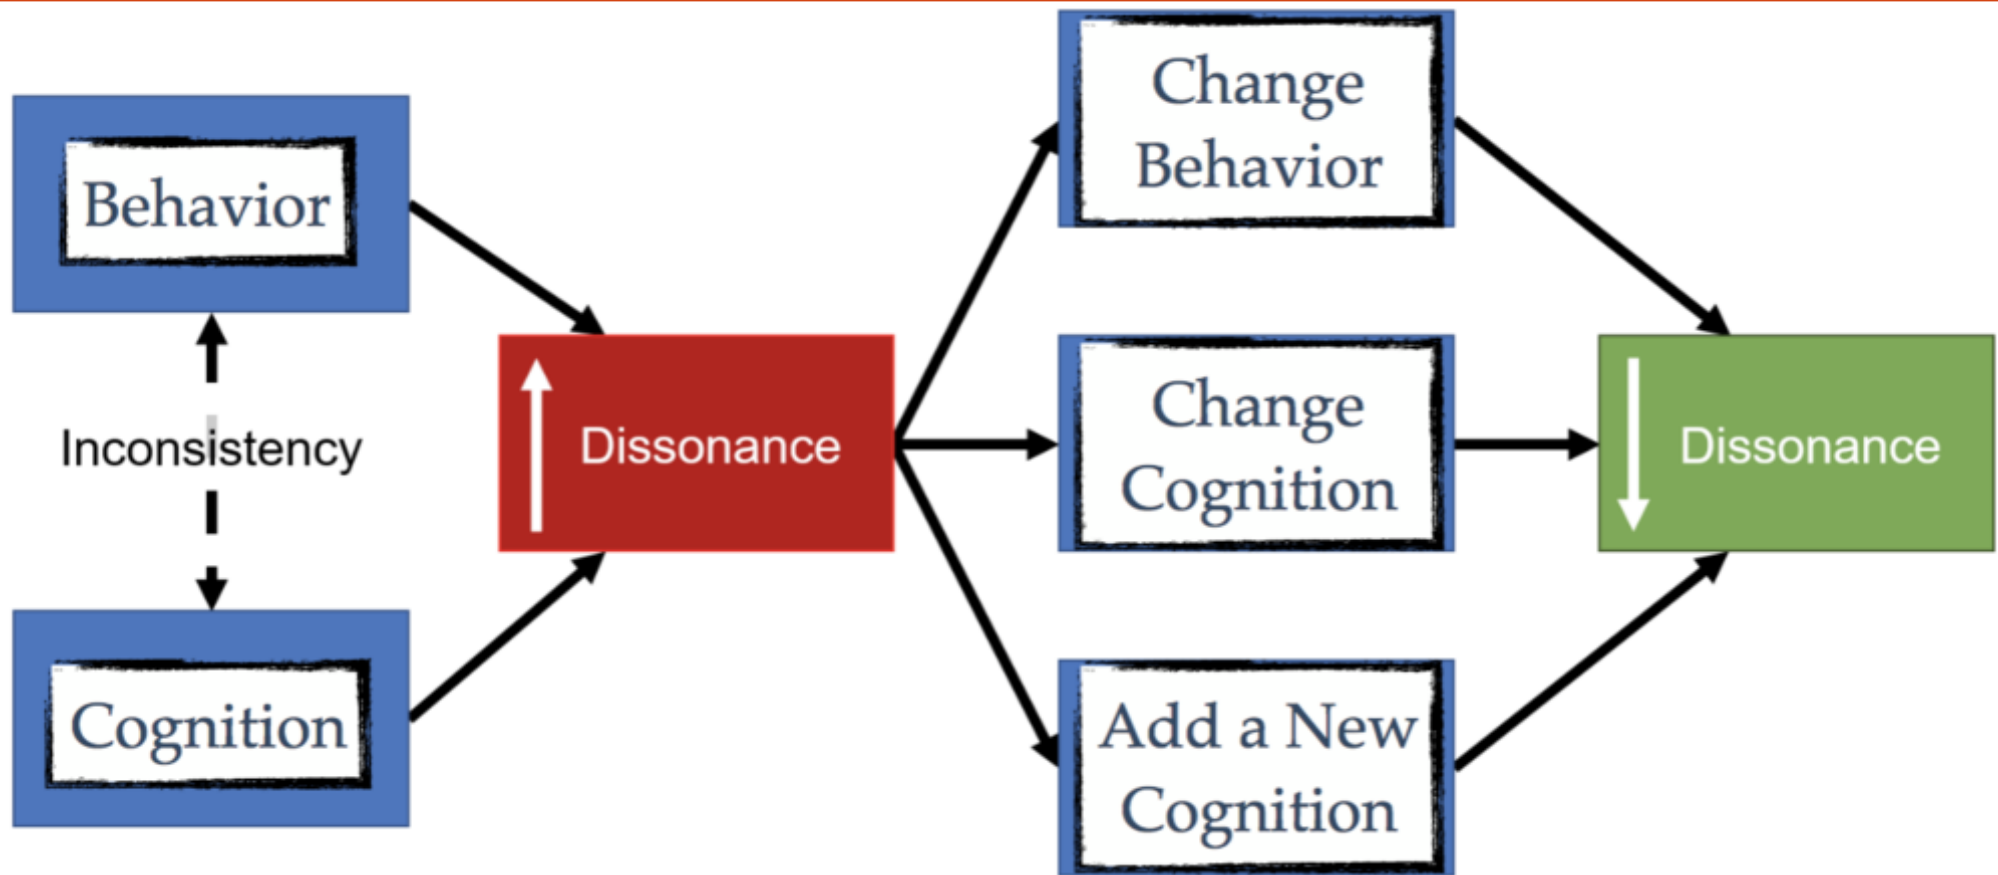

WHAT'S YOUR
WHY?

1. What do you want to accomplish? What about your organization?
2. What values, character, qualities, priorities are important to you? To your organization?
3. What is your organization good at? What do others say you are good at?
4. What gives you energy in your work?
5. What impact do you want to leave on those your serve?
What about your organization?

*Are Your Actions Aligned With Your Why?
If Not, Why Not?*

Equity Response Skillset

- The awareness and abilities required to identify and disrupt inequitable systems.
  - Ability to read, recast and resolve culturally mediated encounters.
- Read: Recognizing when situations are impacted/mediated by culture
  - Tuning in to culturally stressful or conflicting situations
- Recast: Noticing your reaction(s)/non-reaction(s) to culturally mediated situations and reframing them as situations that can be addressed effectively
  - Silence implies agreement
- Resolve: Being able to make decisions that are not an underreaction or an overreaction.
  - Performative vs. Authentic

Culture is to humans as water is to fish

Culture is like an Iceberg

Culture is like an Onion

We don't see things as they are... we see things as We are.

Culture is a problem-solving resource we need to draw on, not a problem to be solved.

Five Aspects of Cultural Competency

The Journey Towards Equity-Focused Health Practices

Developing the Cultural Lens

Culturally Responsive Practice

Culturally	Responsive	Practice
Deep understanding of the dimensions of culture and the ways in which culture may impact patterns of behavior, communication, and our perceptions.	Knowing WHEN and WHY there may be a need to differentiate practices to support cultural and/or linguistic diversity and HOW to do so with relevancy.	Strategies to support positive health outcomes for ALL.

Culturally Responsive Practice is a
CONSTRUCT not a variable.
