

Exhibitor Prospectus

Don't miss the Indiana School Health Network's Conference on June 14 – 15, 2023 bringing together key school health professionals with an expected attendance of more than 500 attendees.

The Indiana School Health Network (ISHN) and its lead agency, Covering Kids & Families of Indiana, invite you to join us for the 15th Annual School Health Network Conference as an exhibitor. If you've exhibited with us in the past, we hope to see you again! ISHN exhibitors interact with their target audience and generate hundreds of quality school health contacts. The 2023 ISHN Conference will be held at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Plainfield, Indiana.

Reserve your booth today!

This conference is expected to be attended by over 500 school staff and school health advocates, including elementary to post-secondary educators, principals, school nurses, public health nurses, social workers, managed care professionals, hospital administrators and staff, federally qualified health center and school-based health center leadership and school health experts from across the state. This year's focus will be School Health: Connecting the Pieces! Sessions will highlight the important elements that are a part of school health, such as family engagement and equity; Indiana's progress in mitigating COVID-19; culture and leadership; social and emotional learning; mental health, child trafficking; resiliency and prevention of burnout; Medicaid in schools, and more. Additionally, we believe the information and resources that your organization provides is an integral part of our success.

Exhibitors will have access to

- One six-foot by 30 inches wide table and two chairs
- Two full Conference registrations, including meals and snacks for two
- Two FREE conference registrations to invite colleagues and/or partners to attend the conference as your guest
- Your organization listed in the Conference Program

Exhibitor inquiries should be directed to Sarah Thompson at sthompson@ckfindiana.org

Exhibitors will be in a spacious exhibit hall that is easily accessible to attendees. Breakfast and break food will be located within the exhibit hall to draw more attendees to your booth.
